

5. English literature Everybody's Water Assignment 2 of Ch.6

REFERENCE TO CONTEXT

4. GROUNDWATER: I have something to say. You don't forget to recharge your phones, do you? You don't forget to eat and recharge your energy, do you?

Q a. To whom is Groundwater speaking?

Ans a. He is speaking to Everybody.

Q b. What are the two things Groundwater lists in these lines? Why are these things easy to remember?

Ans b. The two things that Groundwater lists in these lines is recharging phones and eating food to recharge the body. These things are easy to remember because we do them very frequently.

Q c. What else does Groundwater want us to remember?

Ans c. Groundwater wants us to throw spare or waste water on the ground or soil.

---

READ, REFLECT AND WRITE

Q7. What does the word recharge mean? What does the play teach us about ways to recharge the water in the ground?

Ans 7. The word recharge means to restore and regenerate. The play teaches us to throw any spare or waste water on the ground, and to plant more trees.

Word Wall

Words for the environment

1. Circle the following words:
recharge, sanctuary, recycle, greening, conservation, solar energy, protect.
2. Match the words to their definitions and then number the pictures accordingly. Page no.89

		pictures
a. drought	ii	c
b. earthquake	i	e
c. flood	vi	f

d. tidal wave	iii	d
e. typhoon	iv	b
f. volcanic eruption	v	a